If you do not agree with the statement please do not use this website. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd reserves the right to make changes to this website and to this statement at any time. Any such modifications will become effective upon the date they are first posted to the website.

1. Website Privacy Statement for People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd

Any information that you provide to People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd through this website will be maintained in accordance with this website privacy statement. Please ensure that you read the statement carefully and understand the purposes that information provided to People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd will be collected used or disclosed. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd may change this statement from time to time and if so, People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd will use reasonable efforts to publish such changes.

2. Anonymous use of this website

When you browse this website you will do so anonymously. Personal information, such as your name, address, telephone number or email address is not collected. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd does, however, use 'cookies' to collect information about how the website is used.

3. How does People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd use cookies?

"Cookies" give users a unique, random ID by storing small text files onto a user's computer hard drive with the user's browsers. Cookies enable a website to track a user's activities on a website. For example, People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd may use cookies on its home page to keep a record of all visits to the website. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd may use cookies in other areas on its website now and in the future. Users are free to change their web browsers to prevent the acceptance of cookies.

4. What information does People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd gather from users of this website?

People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd may gather information from you including your name and address among other personal data. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd limits the collection of information from you to what is needed to conduct the Lottery and to fulfil any legal and regulatory requirements.

The choice of how much personally identifiable information you disclose to People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd is completely at your discretion. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd will advise of the general uses of information in this privacy statement and will provide additional explanation to you, if requested. Our fundamental concern is that you control the use of your own personal information. To this end, it is not mandatory for you to answer any questions, although in some circumstances if you choose to not answer questions it may limit the services People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd is able to offer.

5. How does People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd use information collected from this website?

In providing personal information to People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd you are agreeing to allow People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd to use the personal information you submit for any purposes related to People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd's business. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd may combine the information it obtains from this website with information that it already holds.

If you wish to limit the use of your personal information to purposes other than those outlined in these paragraphs you should advise People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd in writing as soon as possible.

6. Advertising and Tracking

When you view a People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd advertisement on a Third Party website, the 'advertising company' uses 'cookies' to collect information such as:

- The server your computer is logged onto.
- Your browser type.
- The date and time of your visit.
- The performance of their marketing efforts.

When you access the People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd website after viewing a People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd advertisement on a Third Party website, the advertising company collects information on how you utilise the People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd website (eg which pages you view) and whether you complete an online application.

In addition, People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd also uses the following companies to collect information on how you utilise the People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd website:

- Google analytics ('tracking companies'). These tracking companies also use cookies to collect information similar to that collected by the advertising company. The advertising company and tracking companies ('companies') use that information to perform statistical analyses of aggregate user behaviour, but those analyses are not based on personal information. People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd uses those analyses to measure advertising effectiveness and relative consumer interest in the various areas of the People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd website. As a general rule, no personal information is collected by the Companies in this process. If, however, any information is automatically collected, these companies are required under their arrangements with People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd to maintain the privacy and confidentiality of that personal information.

We may disclose the information collected by a Company, in an aggregate form only, to third parties including advertisers or potential advertisers.

7. What choices do you have about how your personal information collected on this website is used and what is People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd's commitment to data quality and reliability?

People's Choice Community Foundation Ltd respects your privacy and realises that not everyone likes to receive special offers or information.
